Bio

Christian Alexander Bernard Andrews(student) hails from Canton Ohio and first attended classes at Kent state in the summer of 2015. He starts with an improv troupe named Pardon My Improv. He did every play or musical throughout middle school and high school and even did community theatre at the North Canton Playhouse, the Canton Palace Theatre and more. After graduating from GlenOak High School in Canton, he attended the Porthouse Summer academy at Kent State University. He is so thrilled to be in this class and he looks forward to gaining even more experience doing the things he loves.
